Session 1: Project introduction15 June 2016

Write shared impact frame. Explore and agree research question. Agree who will be first focus teacher. Send impact frame to lead teacher.

Session 2: Getting started 12 October 2016 9.30-16.00

Hold kyozai kenkyu session. Refine research question and consider what first lesson might explore.

Twilight session in school

Plan first research lesson. Send plan to all participating teachers.

Teachers experiment with lesson and provide feedback via email to planning group

One day cover split across two half

2 week gap

Carry out research lesson and postlesson discussion. Agree who will be second focus teacher and how second research lesson will continue to explore the research theme.

Plan second research lesson. Send plan to all participating teachers. Send date for research lesson to all schools

2 week gap

Teachers experiment with lesson and provide feedback to focus teacher.

Session 3: Review of progress

One day cover split across two half days

Carry out research lesson and postlesson discussion. Agree who will be third focus teacher and how third research lesson will continue to explore the research theme.

Plan third research lesson. Send plan to all participating teachers. Send date for research lesson to all schools.

2 week gap

Teachers experiment with lesson and provide feedback to focus teacher.

One day cover split across two half days

Carry out research lesson and postlesson discussion.

Consider learning from the project: within and across schools.

Session 4: Evaluation and data collection 14 June 2017 13.30-17.00

Prepare for final dissemination.

Final dissemination.

Project Conference: 7 July 2017 9.30-16.00

invited to observe research lessons in other schools.

Senior Leadership Team members to be

Teachers to visit at least one

research lesson in another school

One half day

cover.